

NOTICIERO MÓVIL

In 2020, Claudia Cruz becomes new managing editor.

Student reporter Karina Gonzalez wins a national Gracie Award.

KUNR and Noticiero Móvil win a national Murrow Award for Excellence in Innovation.

Stephanie Serrano wins a national Murrow Award for work as a bilingual student reporter.

Noticiero Móvil receives a second ONA grant for digital reporting on immigration issues.

Noticiero Móvil launches on Sept. 10, 2015, with Vanessa Vancour as the first editor and instructor of the program.

2021

KUNR, Noticiero Móvil and This Is Reno win a national Murrow Award for Excellence in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion for their joint bilingual pandemic coverage.

2020

Spanish-language podcast launches to provide COVID-19 information to the public.

Andrew Mendez is recognized as Top 20 Hearst Radio student journalist.

2019

Students present "Silver State, Golden Stories," a multimedia project at the Discovery Museum in Reno.

2018

RSJ wins the Grand Prize for Innovation in Journalism Education from ONA for Noticiero Móvil's media initiatives.

2017

Noticiero Móvil partners with KUNR Public Radio to create an internship and increase Spanish-language audio production

2016

2015

In April 2015, the Reynolds School of Journalism at the University of Nevada, Reno receives $35,000 from the Online News Association (ONA) Challenge Fund for Innovation in Journalism Education to provide bilingual multimedia news coverage of the 2016 Presidential Election.

